Introduction

This investigation concerns allegations of narcotics being sold/stored at 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610 the residence to be searched. Based on the facts described herein and upon my observations, training, and experience, probable cause exist that heroin is being sold/stored at 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610 and in violation of G.S. 90-95. I believe that probable cause exists to conclude that the evidence described in this application probably is located at the places to be searched as described herein.

Probable Cause Affidavit

I, Detective O. I. Abdullah, have been a Law Enforcement Officer with the Raleigh Police Department for 11 years. I am currently assigned to Drugs and Vice Team 1. I have received training in drug enforcement through the Raleigh Police Department's Academy. I have also received training in Basic Narcotic Investigation which is a 40-hour course that I have successfully completed and received a certificate through Coastal Plain Law Enforcement Training Center at Wilson Community College. Through my training and experience, I am familiar with the persons, practices, and with the appearance, packaging, manufacturing, sales, and distribution of illegal controlled substances. I have conducted numerous investigations that have led to the arrest of individuals for violations of the North Carolina Controlled Substance Act G.S. 90-95. I am familiar with drug violations and the activity and evidence associated with drugs such as drug dealers using vehicles for transportation of their drugs, street drug transactions and drug houses.

Within the past 72 hours a confidential informant was utilized to purchase an amount of heroin from a black male who goes by the name Marcus and same is residing at 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610. According to the confidential informant, Marcus is selling heroin out of the apartment. I met with this confidential informant at a predetermine location in Raleigh, North Carolina and I searched the confidential informant prior to the buy. No illegal contraband was located on his/her person. The confidential informant was then given a previously recorded amount of U.S. Currency. The confidential informant contacted the subject, Marcus by phone (919-457-6199) using a phone number that is associated with the subject and was previously given to the confidential informant by same.

After the confidential informant spoke to Marcus, the confidential informant then went to the subject's apartment located at 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610. The buy was monitored using electronic and physical surveillance. The confidential informant was then observed by detectives being let into the residence by the target of this investigation, Marcus, and an amount of heroin was then purchased from the subject for an amount of U.S. currency. After the buy was completed, I met with the confidential informant at a post meet buy location in Raleigh, North Carolina where I debriefed the confidential informant about the buy and I recovered the contraband. This was a plastic baggie that contained an amount of heroin. I searched the confidential informant again, and no illegal contraband was located on his/her person.

This confidential informant has just provided information to this detective that has led to the recovery of narcotics. This source knows how drugs are packaged and are sold and is familiar with the common street terms, and jargon associated with drug trafficking. This confidential informant has also provided information to this detective in the past that has always been proven to be truthful and reliable, and that information has led to many drug convictions.

Furthermore, I know through my training and experience that drug dealers use cell phones and other electronic devices to communicate with buyers and drug suppliers. Drug dealers also store drug ledgers and contacts including names and telephone numbers of buyers and drug sources on cell phones and electronic devices. Drug dealers are also known to take photographs of drugs.

Conclusion

This Detective feels that based on a controlled buy that was conducted within the past 72 hours at 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610., where an amount of heroin was purchased from a subject named Marcus who is selling heroin from the apartment, and that the confidential informant knows how drugs are packaged and are sold, and is familiar with the common street terms, and jargon associated with drug trafficking. I believe that there is probable cause to warrant a search of 1628 Burgundy St. Apt. B Raleigh, NC 27610. I request this search warrant be issued.
